

Onsite Contract

I give permission to THE COMPUTER STORE to service my computer and/or equipment as required. I will not hold THE COMPUTER STORE responsible for any data lost on my hard drive or any other source during servicing. THE COMPUTER STORE is not responsible for failure of any software or hardware during servicing. I understand that problems during servicing could arise and are not the fault of THE COMPUTER STORE or its technicians, but are coincidental and could surface when a previous problem is corrected.

I give permission to THE COMPUTER STORE to reformat my storage media if the technician finds that to be the appropriate action required. I acknowledge that all data will be lost if such an event occurs including software such as Microsoft Office and any personal files.

I understand that THE COMPUTER STORE is not the manufacturer of my equipment or Software and hereby disclaims all representations of warranties implied, written or orally presented in connection with equipment or service. In no event will THE COMPUTER STORE be liable for any incidental or consequential damages even if THE COMPUTER STORE has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

I agree to notify THE COMPUTER STORE within 30 days of service of any problems to my equipment and/or software. If THE COMPUTER STORE is unable to correct the problem(s), the liability of THE COMPUTER STORE shall not exceed the charges paid by me to THE COMPUTER STORE for the product or service causing the actual damages. THE COMPUTER STORE is not a network provider and we do not support, maintain, setup or repair networks. THE COMPUTER STORE is not responsible for any network connection that is lost due to installation or re-installation of hardware or software.
